

If you would like to enjoy the excellence of Cannes Mougins for one or two golfing seasons, the company's shareholders can concede their playing rights to you.

As a Concessionaire (tenant), you must be approved in advance by the Board of Directors. (See application form)

There are two ways to become a Concessionaire (tenant):

Concession holder A, whose aim is to purchase a share in the SA in the short term, will have to pay the company administrative fees equal to 50% of the entrance fee, i.e. €3,500 in 2025. This concession cannot last longer than one season, which ends on 31 December, i.e. a maximum of 12 months.

If the concession holder acquires a share in the company in the year in which it signed the concession contract, the amount of its administrative costs will be deducted from the amount of the entrance fee. If a share is not acquired within this period, the administrative costs will be definitively retained by the Company.

The Concessionaire will have the same rights and duties as a shareholder member for the length of the concession of the right to play. The annual subscription will be calculated pro rata based on the start of the concession to the club in relation to the end of the current year (31 December).

Concession holder B, whose aim is to be able to play for a defined period in Cannes Mougins but who does not necessarily wish to acquire a share in the SA, will have to pay the company, in addition to the annual subscription, administrative costs equal to €1,200. This concession cannot last for more than two seasons, i.e. a maximum of 24 months.

However, the Concessionaire will not be able to benefit from agreements concluded by the Company with partner clubs or from any other agreement that may be concluded by the Company with other organisations. Similarly, this Type B concessionaire will not benefit from reductions at the restaurant and/or proshop, nor from the member guest rate for their guests.

The annual subscription will be calculated pro rata based on the start of the concession to the club in relation to the end of the current year (31 December).

At the end of the concession period, set at a maximum of two seasons, the concessionaire may only purchase a share in the SA Golf & Country Club de Cannes Mougins with the exceptional written agreement of the board of directors and according to the terms and conditions it has defined.

Golf de Cannes-Mougins

175 avenue du Golf – 06250 Mougins – France – Tél. 04 93 75 79 13
www.golfcannesmougins.com – Email : contact@golfcannesmougins.com